

Letter from Eliza Symonds Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, January 1875, with transcript

Copy of letter from Mr.s Alexander Melville Bell to her son, Alexander Graham Bell
January '75 P. O. Box 518 Brantford, Ont., Canada January 75. (No envelope) My dear Aleck,

Your letter written on Saturday, came to hand yesterday, that and the post-card, and has quite relieved our minds about you, though neither were received till four days after date. I have sent to letters to Essex place which I hope have been forwarded. I am glad now to know your address in Washington. The accompanying letters are the earliest we can find that mention the Telegraphic scheme. On reading your letter again this morning, I see you mentioned dates 73 and 74, while I went hurriedly over your letter last night, I only particularly looked for 72. I will look out 73 and 74, and send off by tomorrow's mail as the cutter is at the door now to convey this.

In great haste and with fond love from both of us, Your affectionate Mother, E. G. Bell
